

POP ART

Pop Revolution Gallery

DESCRIPTION: Pop art in its infancy began as a backlash to the high ideals of the Abstract Expressionist movement. By using the symbolism of popular culture, Pop Art is accessible to anyone. It challenged the elite world of fine art by including imagery from advertising, news, comic art, and everyday objects.

Some of the most well-known artists of the movement are: Andy Warhol, Claes Oldenburg, Robert Rauschenberg, Roy Lichtenstein, Jasper Johns, Tom Wesselman, and Robert Indiana. These artists are a great place to look for inspiration in creating your own Pop Art, but please refrain from art of replication.

Mass media and pop culture imagery has never been more accessible. Whether condemning or celebrating pop culture, have fun!

INFORMATION: This is our 8th Annual Juried Art Exhibition. This years' exhibit theme is "Pop Art." Please include an artist's statement about your piece.
