Denver, CO – April 7, 2018

“All That You Can Imagine” is an Open Call for Entry Mixed Media show juried by Broomfield artist Suzette Rosenthal. Featuring 2d & 3d works in multiple and interdisciplinary mediums and forms. Show dates are May 10 – May 27. We will host an opening reception Friday, May 11th from 6-9pm.

CORE New Art Space was founded in 1981 as a non-profit contemporary art cooperative. It is comprised of 24 member artists and is located in Denver’s historic Santa Fe Arts District. Core provides professional gallery space to its members as well as to the broader arts community. Core offers additional opportunities to artists in the form of juried feature exhibitions. The mission of Core New Art Space is to encourage the exploration of new and different forms of expression and to promote to the general public the understanding of contemporary art.
