

Movement

Pop Revolution Gallery

ABOUT: A juried exhibition open to artists working in all mediums. The theme for this exhibit is Movement.

DESCRIPTION: For this show make movement the focus of your piece. Please include an artist's statement about your piece.

A sense of movement is a key aspect of compelling art. Even depictions of static subjects can pull us into their worlds with a strong or pleasing sense of movement between their compositional elements. Great art has the ability to transport us to a new location in some sense; our appreciation of it leaves us in a different place from where we started.

Whether it's abstract or purely representational, and whatever the medium, we're taking a look at art that exemplifies movement.

Join us for our February exhibition as we consider movement in all its many forms.
