

McWherter takes First Prize in SAMA exhibition

Richard S. McWherter of Derry won First Prize in the Southwestern Pennsylvania Council for the Arts 17th Annual Regional Juried Art Exhibition, currently on view through Feb. 10 at the Southern Alleghenies Museum of Art (SAMA) at Ligonier Valley.

He is among several local winners in the exhibition, which features 73 works in a variety of media created by 73 of the area's most acclaimed and talented artists.

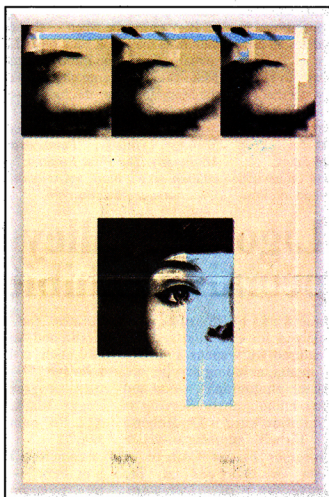

McWherter won for his photographic print, "Carolina Morning."

John Ritter of Ligonier received Second Prize, while Hsiao Busch of Plumville took Third Prize.

Skip Allen of Ligonier and Mary Dunn of West Mifflin received Awards of Excellence. Other honors included six Awards of Merit, given to Suzanne Andrews, Greensburg; Anne Clark, Ligonier; Doreen Currie, Latrobe; William M. Hoffman Jr., Ligonier; Carol McCray, Laughlintown, and Ceres M. Rangos of Pittsburgh.

Dr. Roberta K. Tarbell, adjunct associate professor in the College of Arts & Sciences at the University of Delaware, was the exhibition juror. Tarbell has a BS from Cornell University and MA and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Delaware. A former chair of the fine arts department at Rutgers University, Tarbell is currently the first Visiting Scholar at the Philadelphia Museum of Art and was co-curator for the exhibition, Rodin and America.

The Council's 17th Annual Exhibition includes work in media such as oil, acrylic, pastel, wood, clay and photography, among others. Artists from throughout the group's 19-county service region — Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Bedford, Blair, Butler, Cambria, Clarion, Clearfield, Fayette, Greene, Indiana, Jefferson, Lawrence, Mercer, Somerset, Venango, Washington and Westmoreland counties — contributed to make this one of the Council's strongest showings to date. The group held its first exhibition in 1996 in an effort to promote and support visual artists living within southwestern Pennsylvania. Since then, the exhibition has become known for its freshness and energy in the art of emerging artists, and for the dazzling presentations of established artists who are developing a new direction with their art.
