ABOUT THE ARTIST

Zabé is a French-born, Los Angeles-based mixed-media artist, best known for her vibrant and expressive paintings that seamlessly blend collages and painting techniques. Her art is an invitation for viewers to delve beyond the surface and explore deeper layers of meaning.

"My work is inspired by subjects that move me: the places I visited, the people I encountered and those I admire, and the experiences I have accumulated over time. Each of them evokes a universe of sensations and colors in my mind. More than absolute reality, it is what I feel behind that I seek to transcribe in my paintings, hoping to elicit emotions in the observers as well."

While Zabé explores various subjects, portraits are always her favorite. She is fascinated by every human face, be it known or unknown: the way fleeting emotions are conveyed through a gaze, a stance, a smile or a raised eyebrow. Regarding the choice of medium, she particularly likes combining paper and acrylic paint whose unexpected interactions allow her to create sensorial and meaningful universes prompting viewers to engage in contemplation.

After spending many years in Paris, Zabé now resides and works in Los Angeles with her husband and two children, where the abundance of light and color continually enrich her inner artistic world.
