Visual artist specializing in painting: My artwork ranges from narratives to abstract. I am an art experimenter, working with a variety of materials, mostly oils and acrylics, painting on wood and canvas. Incorporating illuminated, luminescence and reflective finishes, with glazes, glosses, gold leaf, glass, epoxies, resins, enamels, car paints, nail polishes, wax, polyurethane, a variety of materials for texture, translucency and shine.

Art Teacher and Art Business:

1998 to Present: I have created a vibrant Art Business Art For Learning LLC., which includes enrichment lectures and trips to museums and other venues for adults, seniors, teens and children. Art For Learning LLC., presents Art Enrichment Programs for schools, designed to match curriculums of lower schools, middle schools as well as high schools.

It also offers art and history Summer Programing for children. Art For Learning LLC, summer programs include 26 programs of which thousands of children have attended.

I have worked directly with Museums and other institutes that have incorporated parts of my programs into theirs.

1998 to Present: After school Art lessons for students in small classes from 1st grade to 9th grade. Teaching drawing, painting, color and composition.

1995 - 1997: Closter Art Studio: Englewood New Jersey.

Art Lecturer:

I have created over 50 Art lectures and presentations. Many lectures are introductions to visits to museums and galleries. I am also a Hirshorn Lecturer, allowing me to present art appreciation lectures and tour series for adults and seniors.
