BE-LEAVE ME - ORIGINAL

Size: 50 x 70cm

Love is in believing. I was so blessed to be able to hold this baby wombat and be enamoured by its essence. Her little eyes held my heart and assured me that everything is okay, and our souls live on infinitely. Plus, the cheeky little wombat started to chew on my hair, so I had to leave...hehehe...get it!

COLOURS GROW FREE - ORIGINAL

Size: 60 x 90cm

Love is growing in every colour. This stunning Eastern Rosella visits us regularly and for some reason it fills me with feelings of good luck. I merged the Banksia tree from my garden into its markings and let the rainbow of painted colours shine from this little being. Colours are simply fascinating to me.

DONT GET COCKY - ORIGINAL

Size: 50 x 75cm

Love is in the cheek. The lighter we feel the more love we let in and this playful fella will push your buttons but also make you laugh. Even though they have stolen hundreds of fruits from my trees, I can't help seeing their natural beauty. I invite you to embrace their bold, loud and cocky character to have a belly laugh or two too.

WAKING UP WITH WINGS - ORIGINAL

Size: 150 x 100cm

Love is found in the synchronicities. The very same morning I started painting this artwork of balloons, they literally flew over my studio in the Hunter Valley. This kind of connection happens so often which is why I unequivocally believe there is so much more to life than what our senses can experience.
