I believe art connects people. My life – is reflected in my artwork and connects me and the viewer. My idea – the art and the artist should bring visual information to our community. My artwork – needs social interaction to reveal all the secrets inside.– KHRYSTNA KOZYUK

My desire is to capture the energy and emotion that lies below the surface creating an intimate experience. I hope to show the power of the energy connection within, and how we communicate without words to all around us near and far; art can make what is in life invisible - visible on the canvas.
– TARA McCALLAM

Tara and I met at an art show where we displayed our work. We share our belief of peace and harmony in our art. We are both focusing on finding new art opportunities. We work in the same media and appreciate each other's advice. I hope that we will experience many art achievements together. – KHRYSTNA KOZYUK
